

Record Makers and Breakers:

Voices of the Independent Rock 'n' Roll Pioneers

Join John Broven on a fascinating journey through the network of independent record companies that brought forth the birth of rock 'n' roll from its raw regional beginnings in the 1940's with R&B and hillbilly music through its decline in the 1960's. Record Makers and Breakers: Voices of the Independent Rock 'n' Roll Pioneers tells it like it was through the eyes, mouths (and sometimes $50 handshakes) of industry insiders from record pressing plants, jukebox distributors, disc jockeys and record stores.
