About Us

Three Village Historical Society

The Three Village Historical Society was founded in 1964 by community members who believed in the power of local history to understand our cultural heritage and shape our future. The Regents of the University of the State of New York granted the Society a Provisional Charter in 1966 and an Absolute Charter on September 27, 1968.

In 1998, with the purchase of the Bayles-Swezey House (c. 1800), the Three Village Historical Society established a physical base for its operations. The Bayles-Swezey House serves as the TVHS headquarters, housing exhibits and administrative offices, while the TVHS archives are located in the lower level of the Emma S. Clark Library, Setauket.

In addition to exhibits in the Bayles-Swezey House, the Three Village Historical Society continues its goal to educate the community about local history through events, walking tours, and educational programs.

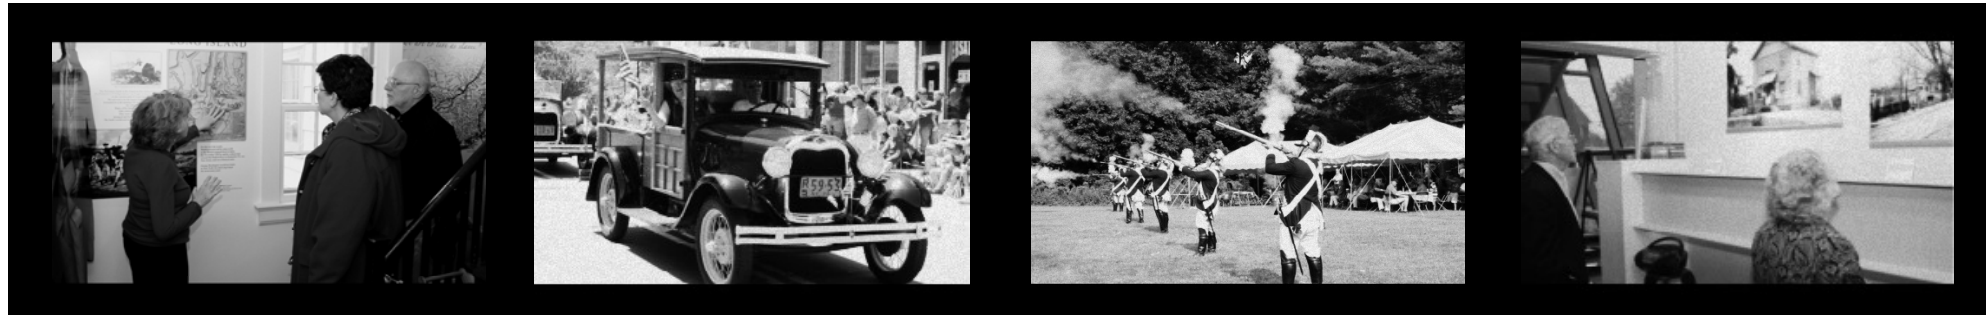

The Three Village Historical Society exists to foster and preserve local history and educate the public about our rich cultural heritage. Educational programs are developed by collecting and preserving artifacts, documents, and other materials of local significance and by doing research on the history of the people who have lived in the Three Village area from earliest habitation to the present.

~ TVHS Mission Statement, adopted
June 4, 2008

The TVHS logo was designed by Captain Edward R. Rhodes, TVHS President 1964-1970. The design depicts the hermaphrodite brig Daisy, which was built in East Setauket by Nehemiah Hand in 1871.
